

Victor Grixti

Graduated as a physiotherapist in 1992. Obtained a M.Sc in Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation from the University of Dundee in 2000. Currently employed as an Assistant Principal at the Musculoskeletal Out Patients Unit in St. Luke's Hospital.

Since 2004 employed with the University of Malta as a part time Lecturer in the Physiotherapy Division.

Is an elected member on the Council of Professions Complimentary to Medicine (CPCM) since 2003 and also chairs various sub committees within the Council. Active member of the Malta Association of Physiotherapists (MAP) since 1993 and at present is the Financial Controller of the MAP. Since 1998 is also a member of the Chartered Society of Physiotherapists (CSP).

Since 2001 works as a Director in one of Malta's private clinics and his main role is the management of the accounts department . In the past was entrusted with the role of financial controller of various other associations always on a voluntarily basis.